

The Water Crisis in Palestine: the current situation and the possibilities for the future

22.10.20214 - 16.00 CET: Aula Magna

School of Agriculture, University of Florence, Piazzale delle Cascine, 18, Firenze

Registration for online and in-person attendance: <https://forms.gle/Nx9EkYtTh2QqXqFQ9>

Welcome Panel

Giulio Castelli and Tommaso Pacetti, University of Florence

Gianni Toma, Vice-president COSPE Onlus

16:30 - The water politics of Palestine

Mark Zeitoun, Geneva Graduate Institute and Geneva Water Hub

17:00 - The experience of the University of Florence in a spring restoration project in Palestine

Antonio Giacomini, formerly Associate Professor at the University of Florence

17:15 - War on Water in Palestine: How Palestinians and the international humanitarian community are responding to the denial of basic water rights in the time of war

Nidal Atallah, WASH Manager for occupied Palestinian territories, WeWorld

Anna Crescenti, Senior Global Technical Expert – WASH, WeWorld

17:30 - A resilient way forward: the “Reviving Gaza” project

Ghassan Ghaben, Reviving Gaza

Photo credits: Credit: EU/(c) AptART_Clean Water – Translation of graffiti: “Clean water is the best medicine”

Host: Giulio Castelli (giulio.castelli@unifi.it), Tommaso Pacetti, Federico Preti, Enrico Lucca, Niccolò Renzi

Event organized by:

In collaboration with:

INGEGNERIA
SENZA
FRONTIERE
FIRENZE

